

AIFLAM Arbitration Course

Friday 5 May and Saturday 6 May 2023
Sheraton Grand Mirage, Gold Coast

This interactive and practical course will be run at the beautiful Sheraton Grand Mirage Resort, Gold Coast. It is designed to help participants develop the knowledge and skills required to conduct Family Law Arbitration with confidence and professionalism.

Family Law Practitioners not wishing to become arbitrators will also benefit from the course, as it provides the skills and knowledge to enable them to confidently advise clients on arbitration as an effective means of resolving their family law dispute.

Successful completion of the course will entitle attendees to be listed as a Family Law Arbitrator pursuant to Regulation 67B of the Family Law Regulations.

Pursuant to the Family Law Regulations 1984, there are prerequisites for attending the course. You must be a legal practitioner, and either:

- a) have practiced for at least 5 years with at least 25% of your work in that time being in relation to family law matters; or
- b) are accredited as a family law specialist by a State or Territory legal professional body.

Facilitators

The course will be facilitated by Martin Bartfeld AM KC, The Hon. Justice Brasch, Andrew Davies and the Hon Steven Strickland KC.

Cost

The cost of the course is $2500 for AIFLAM members or $2650 for non-members (this does not include airfares or accommodation; however discounted accommodation rates are available). To register or for more information please click here
